

Kacheyta

K. W. McClellan

NATIONAL SPEAKER | REALTOR® |
HBCU TALENT ENGAGEMENT CONSULTANT
STRATEGIC ADVISOR | REAL ESTATE INVESTOR

Building partnerships that create opportunity.

Kacheyta K. W. McClellan is a strategic leader, national speaker, REALTOR® and consultant who helps organizations, professionals, and communities build stronger futures through leadership, workforce strategy, and real estate. For more than fifteen years, he has led high-impact initiatives across higher education, nonprofit associations, workforce development, and economic mobility—bringing together employers, colleges, universities, community leaders, and public officials to create partnerships that expand opportunity and produce measurable results.

Over the course of his career, Kacheyta has built multiple award-winning programs, delivered dozens of keynote addresses, workshops, and conference presentations, and helped organizations strengthen partnerships, expand opportunity, and achieve measurable results. His expertise spans HBCU engagement, talent strategy, leadership development, relationship management, and organizational growth.

As Founder of KM Realty Group LLC and a REALTOR® with Keller Williams, Kacheyta helps individuals, families, investors, and business owners make informed real estate decisions. Drawing on more than fifteen years of executive leadership experience, he approaches every client relationship strategically—helping clients identify opportunities, evaluate risk, negotiate effectively, and build long-term wealth through real estate.

In addition to his real estate practice, Kacheyta advises organizations on HBCU engagement, partnership development, workforce strategy, and the practical application of artificial intelligence to improve organizational effectiveness and business operations.

Kacheyta's leadership and service have earned recognition from civic and professional organizations, including the Evansville Rotary Club for his contributions to the community. He was also recognized as one of Evansville's 20 Under 40 leaders—becoming the first Black man to receive the distinction in the program's history, a milestone now preserved in the Rotary Club of Evansville's official record of recipients.

Whether speaking from the stage, consulting with executives, or helping families purchase their next home, Kacheyta is driven by one belief:

“

*Every human has four endowments – self
awareness, conscience, independent will and creative imagination.
These give us the ultimate human freedom. The power to choose, to respond, to change*

– STEPHEN COVEY

SELECTED RECOGNITION

First Black man recognized as an Evansville 20 Under 40 honoree (Evansville Business Journal), now preserved in the Rotary Club of Evansville's official record

Honored by the Evansville Rotary Club for his contributions to the community

Built multiple award-winning workforce and HBCU engagement initiatives

Delivered dozens of keynote addresses, workshops, and conference presentations across the country

Recognized for advancing partnerships, workforce development, and educational opportunity

kacheyta.com

@Kacheyta